SITUATION SUMMARY

Outbreak of Legionnaires Disease at San Quentin: San Rafael, Marin County

On 08/27/15 at 1748 hours, San Quentin's Senior Emergency Management Coordinator (Sr. EMC) notified the Warning Center that an emergency procurement of drinking water will be required due to one confirmed case of Legionnaires and other inmates showing signs of possible infection.

- Marin County's Public Health Officer met with the San Quentin officials and a "do not drink or bathe" order was enforced at the facility; however, alternate water sources were procured, i.e. bottled water.
- The Cal OES Coastal Region Duty Officer (CDO) furnished the current bulk water hauler list to San Quentin's Sr. EMC.
- At 1500 on 08/28/15, the Coastal Region had a conference call with CDCR, San Quentin, Cal OES Coastal and Logistics staff, Region II RDMHC, and DGS. The LDO and Marin County EM were briefed after the call.
- San Quentin had one prisoner test positive for Legionnaire's disease, with 25 more showing similar flu/pneumonia-like systems.
- San Quentin is currently investigating the possible source of the contamination.
- Water is shut off to the prison and a do not drink/bathe order, has been issued.
- Bottled water and sack meals will be provided.
- At this time the major issues are:
  - Shower units - DGS will be working with the prison to support this.
  - Non-alcoholic hand sanitizer for use in cells - DGS will work through their contractors.
  - Low temp freezer/cold storage units - there was a concern that the food packaging would be contaminated with water particles, but San Quentin reassured all on the call that this was not the case. DGS will be working on this issue.
- At this time, the prison is planning on needing assistance for about 2 weeks, and there are no plans to evacuate prisoners or use laundry trailers.

Update: Per CDO as of 1351 hours on 08/29/15, CDCR issued an updated Press Release. Per the Press Release:

- There are three other inmates who have been hospitalized after displaying pneumonia-like symptoms but have not been diagnosed with Legionnaires' disease.
- In addition, approximately 45 inmates are under observation for respiratory illness but have not been diagnosed with Legionnaires' disease. All unconfirmed cases are being treated at San Quentin's on-site medical unit.
- The prison resumed the use of plumbed toilets inside the facility's housing units, and monitored use of water for cooking as of Friday afternoon. Secondary water sources such as bottled water and water tanks will continue to be used for consumption until it is deemed safe to resume normal water use.
- Portable shower units arrived at the prison today for inmate use.
- San Quentin is a reception center for new inmates to the California prison system. Intake has been temporarily halted as the investigation continues. This weekend's inmate visiting has also been halted as the investigation is ongoing.

WEATHER

WEATHER SYNOPSIS BY REGION:

NORTHERN CALIFORNIA AND CENTRAL COASTAL AREAS:

Eureka Weather:

Light showers will persist in northern Humboldt and Del Norte Counties through this morning. Temperatures will remain generally below normal for the next several days as a trough sits over the west coast. This trough will also allow shortwaves to swing around the trough possibly bringing brief shots of shower activity to the region mid week. Most areas have been kept dry in the forecast after Sunday except for a slight chance of showers in northern Del Norte County Wednesday. A warming trend may begin late in the week into next weekend as the trough begins to shift east.

Medford Weather:

A long wave trough is now moving onshore, with most of the energy directed to the north of the forecast area. Still, the Medford region will catch the southern end of this system. The coast and coast range will get the bulk of the precipitation, a quarter to a half an inch, through this afternoon, and the upper Umpqua and Cascades will pick up some lighter rain this afternoon. There will be light showers this afternoon and evening over most of the rest of the west side, but coverage will be spotty with light amounts, generally less than a tenth of an inch. That trough will kick inland to the east of the area early Sunday afternoon, and it will take any straggling precipitation with it. Sunday will be cool with inland highs around 10 degrees below normal

Reno Weather:

High pressure builds in through mid week as dry weather prevails through the end of the week. Typical late day breezes with slightly below normal temperatures are expected Sunday and Monday. Another low pressure may bring increased winds and further cooling by Thursday with conditions remaining dry.

San Francisco Weather:

A dry upper trough will remain anchored near the west coast through most of the week. Temperatures near the coast will be near seasonal norms, while inland areas will generally be cooler than normal over the next seven days. No rain is expected.

WEATHER

WEATHER SYNOPSIS BY REGION:

CENTRAL CALIFORNIA AND SOUTHERN SAN JOAQUIN VALLEY:

Sacramento Weather:

A broad upper trough remains over northern California. Drier air has settled across the region, with clear skies now prevailing over the interior. A modest onshore breeze continues to blow through the Delta. Temperatures across the forecast area are running 5 to 10 degrees cooler than yesterday morning. A shortwave is approaching the NW California coast, though it's quite a bit weaker than yesterday's frontal system. Precipitation is expected to remain outside of our forecast area. Temperatures this afternoon are expected to reach the mid to upper 80s across the valley today, with 60s to lower 80s over the mountains. These forecast highs are a few degrees cooler than normal.

Hanford Weather:

Dry weather can be expected over interior central California for the next several days. Locally breezy conditions are expected this weekend as a low pressure system impacts the region. By Sunday temperatures will cool to slightly below average. Temperatures are expected to remain near average during next week as onshore flow continues.

SOUTHERN CALIFORNIA:

Los Angeles Weather:

A couple of upper level troughs moving into the west coast will bring a cooling trend through Tuesday, along with an increase in night through morning low clouds and fog west of the mountains. An upper trough will linger across the west coast Wednesday through Saturday, keeping temperatures below normal in most areas.

Extreme Southwestern California including Orange, San Diego, Western Riverside and Southwestern San Bernardino Counties:

A trough of low pressure will develop near the west coast bringing cooling to a little below average for the middle to latter part of the week followed by slow warming next weekend. The marine layer will deepen with night and morning low clouds and patchy fog extending into the far inland valleys for the middle to latter part of the week. Stronger onshore will bring gusty west winds to the mountains and deserts each late afternoon through late evening.

Southeast California Weather:

A broad low pressure trough moving into the Great Basin and Mojave Desert region will bring dry southwest flow with cooler and breezy conditions through the coming week and into the Labor Day weekend. Slight chances for thunderstorms will remain in eastern Arizona with activity decreasing through Tuesday.

- 2015-LAW-15570 08/22/15, 1115 Hours: Fresno County Sheriffs' Office requested assistance in the search for a missing hiker at Wishon Reservoir, which is in the Shaver Lake area of Fresno County. The missing person is a 63 year old female who was reported missing the afternoon of Thursday, August 20. The initial request included a helicopter capable of inserting small search teams into remote search areas at elevations exceeding 10,000 feet. Later requests included 50 ground search personnel, search dogs, infrared search capabilities and communications equipment. Search personnel responded from Yosemite National Park, Kern, Tulare, San Luis Obispo, Contra Costa, Santa Barbara, Ventura, Madera, San Mateo/BAMRU, Marin, Riverside and Monterey Counties. Kings Canyon National Park and the CHP assisted with helicopters. The California National Guard has supported the mission with medium lift and heavy lift helicopters. Cal OES T-Com deployed MIGU-5.
